Monday, 1st April. South Walk and Dickson Falls, Mount Buffalo National Park. Michael, 0447 617 880

Two easy walks on top of Mount Buffalo. Dickson Falls is an easy walk of about 4k, followed by the South Walk, an easy walk of about 8k, a total of about 12k. Walking on bush tracks in the Mount Buffalo NP, excellent views from the South Buffalo View Point. [AWTGS-3]

Sunday, 28th April. Salisbury Walk, Friends Track, Kwat Kwat Lookout. Jeanette 0417 546 974.

A choice of two loop walks both starting at Wenhams Camp. An easy walk of about 5k on the Friends Track, with a stop at Kwat Kwat Lookout and Mount Warby, or a longer easy walk of about 10k that takes in the Alpine Views Track and Salisbury Walk before reaching Mount Warby. Both walks are on bush tracks in the Warby Ovens National Park. Excellent views over the Ovens Valley to the Victorian Alps from Kwat Kwat Lookout, and from Mount Warby. [AWTGS-3]

Saturday, 11th May. Billabongs and Ovens River Flats, Killawarra, WONP. Michael, 0447 617 880.

A medium loop walk of about 14k on bush tracks among billabongs, creeks and Ovens River flats at Killawarra. This is one of the most level walks we do. The previous time we completed this walk there was an abundance of birdlife. [AWTGS-2]

Sunday, 26th May. Canyon and Cherry Walks, Bright. Erin, 0419 200 998

Two popular easy walks along the Ovens River at Bright. The walks are about 5k each, and follow the Ovens River on both sides with bridge crossings. Total walking about 10k. [AWTGS-2]

Wednesday, 29th May. Wallaby Mine, Lake Kerferd, Lake Sambell walk. Lesley, 0439 776 687

Starting with a car shuffle from Lake Sambell to the Nine Mile Creek Historic and Cultural Features Reserve. An easy to medium walk of about 9k, starting with a short but steep descent to the Wallaby Mine gloryhole and battery stamp left over from the gold rush era. Then the walk continues along to Lake Kerferd (Beechworth's water supply) and up Red Hill Road, and to Mansion Track then continuing to Lake Sambell. This walk passes through forest areas on gravel roads and bush tracks. [AWTGS-3]

Saturday, 8th June. Kelly's Cave and Lookout Walk, Eldorado. John, 0417 391 044

A medium walk of about 13k, mostly on an undulating gravel road then off track into the bush to locate the Kelly lookout and cave in the Chiltern – Mount Pilot NP. [AWTGS-3]

Wednesday, 19th June, White Box Walk, Chiltern-Mt Pilot NP. Jeanette, 0417 546 974

A mid-week afternoon easy loop walk of about 8k of the White Box Walking Track in the Chiltern – Mount Pilot National Park. The walk is mostly on bush track, with some gravel roads, it starts and finishes at the Honeyeater Picnic Area, and takes in the former goldmining landscape and remnant Box-Ironbark Forest. [AWTGS-3]

Sunday, 23rd June. Back Creek Hills Walk. Marita, 0427 521 122

A choice of an easy walk and a medium walk in the Back Creek Hills between Yackandandah and Stanley. This walk meanders through the bush in the hills. Sometimes on well formed bush roads, and other times on wide enough tracks for two people to walk abreast. There are two options; the shorter one is 5km, with 140 metres ascent and descent, and the longer one is 10km, with 360 metres ascent and descent. [AWTGS-3]

Friday, 6th to Sunday, 8th September. Burrowa - Pine Mountain NP weekend. Michael, 0447 617 880

A weekend at the Burrowa - Pine Mountain National Park offers a wide range of walking opportunities within the park. Lookouts along these tracks provide outstanding views over the NSW Snowy Mountains and surrounding valleys of the Upper Murray. Highlights include Bluff Falls, Mount Burrowa and Pine Mountain. Another walk includes the nearby rail trail from Shelley to Koetong featuring its trestle bridges. [AWTGS-2, 3 and 4]

Easy, Medium and Hard walks will be catered for. Dinner at the Cudgewa Hotel on Saturday night.

Book your own accommodation (cabins, powered and unpowered campsites) at Colac Colac Caravan Park, 02 6076 1520 or www.colaccolaccaravanpark.com.au.
